

Dr. P. Karunakar
MDS, Principal & HOD

He is the Principal of the Panineeya Institute of Dental Sciences. Over the years, his rich experience in Dentistry has made him a much sought after medical professional of high standards. He is a thorough medical practitioner, an able administrator, a leader and a professor. Students at the Dental College can gain much through his varied and in-depth knowledge of Dentistry. He has participated several seminars and workshops and is actively involved in the domain of dental research. His multi-faceted personality and skills are a definite advantage to the student community.

The institute has a blend of experienced, knowledgeable and dedicated team of professionals who are very competent and highly qualified. The staff are constantly engaged in guiding the students towards acquiring expertise in both theory and clinical aspects of Dental and basic medical sciences.